Lively Contest Expected at the Windsor Election.

The Oxonians will Support the Gladstonian Candidate.

Emperor William's Pet Scheme to Heal the Breach Between France and Germany.

THE WINDSOR BYE-ELECTION.

LONDON, April 1.—It is expected that the parliamentary election which is to be held in Windsor to-morrow will be one of the liveliest contests of late years. Both parties are working hard—the conservatives to maintain their majority of about 255, and the liberals to overcome it by the popularity of their candidate and the accessions to their ranks through the increase of the total vote in the district since last election. The liberals have organized an immense parade, one of the features of which will be one of Balfour's battering-rams used by the government's evictors in various parts of Ireland to beat down the walls and doors of houses whose inmates refused admission to the bailiffs and police. The conservatives declare that they will capture this engine of destruction, and should they adhere to their resolve an exciting scene will ensue, from which may result many broken heads. Members of the recently victorious Oxford crew are giving every possible assistance to the Liberals in the contest, the Gladstonian candidate, Mr. Grenfell, being an Oxford graduate, and having coached the crew to victory, Seldom has there occurred a contest into which both sides have entered with such perfect confidence of success.

LORD RANDOLPH PLEASES HIS FRIENDS.

Lord Randolph Churchill has declined the invitation to address a Liberal meeting on the subject of the conference of the peace commission at Berlin, a decision which meets with the approval of his friends, who depreciate his making any public speeches on any subject at this time.

EMPEROR WILLIAM'S SCHEME.

It is stated that Emperor William is preparing a scheme for a peaceful compromise of the existing differences between Germany and France, and will submit its terms to the French Government at an early day. The plan is said to be so entirely equitable that its tender by the more aggressive of the two powers can't fail of cordial acceptance by the other, though it may possibly be subjected to a slight modification.

THE WALPOLE BREACH OF PROMISE CASE.

Captain Robert Walpole has through his counsel secured an order from the court demanding the production of the diaries kept by Miss Vallery Wiedemann, the young German governess whose case against him for breach of promise and seduction has been re-opened, and is still pending. By these journals Walpole will attempt to prove grave misconduct on the part of Miss Wiedemann with a German military officer at the time she claims to have been completely under his own protection in the belief that she was his wife.

INSPIRED JOURNALISM.

Chancellor Von Caprivi has announced his intention of abandoning the system of inspired journalism, which he believes to be unfair to other newspapers and productive of no benefit to the inspiring authority. In future he will decline to extend favors to one paper which are denied to another; but will on the other hand aim at a more equitable distribution of official news among respectable journals without reference to their political leanings, than has heretofore been the practice.

AMENABLE TO CIVIL LAW.

The emperor has decided that military officers on the retired list are under the jurisdiction of the civil authorities, and must in all cases be amenable to the civil law.

THE ARCHDUCHESS STEPHANIE.

The report of the bethrothal of Archduchess Stephanie, widow of Crown Prince Rudolph, to Archduke Francis, heir to the Austrian throne, is officially denied at Vienna.

A Scheme to Oust Manitoba's Premier.

Ontario's Millers Still are Seeking Favors.

New Brunswick's Capital Favors Imperial Penny Postage—Rev. Dr. Stone vs. The Telegram.

Riot in Quebec.

RICHMOND, Que., March 31.—On Saturday the officials here seized eight barrels of liquor from an illicit dealer. A mob attacked the officers and carried off the liquor, and a serious riot followed; several of the party being injured. The officials had to draw revolvers to keep the mob off. Richmond is a Dunkin Act county.

Killed on the Track.

WINNIPEG, March 31.—John Hazelwood, a farmer, was struck on the track near Deloraine and was instantly killed by a C. P. R. train.

Northwest Land Co.

TORONTO, March 31.—The annual meeting of the Northwest Land Co. was held in London, England, on Saturday. Several reports were adopted, including the repayment of 2½s. on capital account. A cable to John Stark & Co. quoted stock firmer with buyers at 81s.

Manitoba Legislature Prorogued.

WINNIPEG, Man., March 31.—The Manitoba Legislature was prorogued this afternoon. Lieut.-Governor Schutz announced that he would withhold his assent to the act respecting arrears of taxes and an act respecting sales of land for taxes, pending the pleasure of the Governor-General-in-council. These acts were recently disallowed at Ottawa.

Dissatisfied With the Tariff.

MONTREAL, March 31st.—There is dissatisfaction in many quarters at the tariff changes. The duties on pork and lard especially have aroused deep feeling. Already mess pork has gone up from $1 to $1.15 per barrel.

English Capital Seeking Investment.

BRANTFORD, Ont., March 31.—An English syndicate is negotiating for the purchase of the extensive agricultural implement works of A. Harris, Son and Co., of this city, who have some of the largest works in the country, employing nearly 5,000 hands.

Denies the Charge.

TORONTO, March 31.—Rev. Dr. Stone denied to his congregation last evening that he had, as alleged, been guilty of improper conduct towards the wife of one of his parishioners, a dry goods merchant named Jennings. He demands an ecclesiastical trial, and will take civil action against Jennings.

Manitoba Politics.

WINNIPEG, Man., April 1.—The impression is gradually gaining ground, that in the political unpleasantness now existing in the provincial cabinet, the retiring attorney-general will shortly be the coming premier, and this, notwithstanding the fact that at the present time Premier Greenway has a clear majority of the members of the House at his back, while the rival claimant to the premiership has only an insignificant following of seven or eight. Fortunately for the latter, though, his little band of supporters comprise all the legal talent of the House, without some three of which a cabinet is impossible. It is now pretty generally admitted that a scheme to oust Mr. Greenway has been, and is being, very cleverly worked.

Exemption from Taxation.

TORONTO, April 1.—The bill respecting exemptions from municipal taxation passed its second reading last night. The opposition complained that all it did practically was to tax ministers of the gospel. the churches going almost entirely free as of old. Premier Mowat said the government had gone as far as public opinion justified it in going, and would introduce a more sweeping measure when the public were ripe for it.

Sudden Death.

ST. JOHN, N. B., April 1.—William Burns, inspector of the board of health for over 30 years, dropped dead to-day.

A Clerical Scandal.

TORONTO, April 1.—Rev. Dr. Stone will take action against the Telegram for libel, in connection with the Jennings scandal, in which the minister is alleged to have taken too great liberties with Mrs Jennings.

Sentenced to be Hanged.

ST. THOMAS, Que., April 1.—Morin, convicted of the murder of his partner, Roy, was to-day sentenced to be hanged on the 16th of May.

In Favor of Penny Postage.

ST. JOHN, N. B., April 1.—The board of trade yesterday afternoon passed a resolution favoring penny postage for the whole of the British empire.

A Fishing Party.

MONTREAL, April 1.—Sir George Stephen will sail from England for New York shortly. Among those invited to Sir George's fishing party are the Duke of Connaught and General Donald Stewart, K. C. B.

The Ontario Millers Kicking.

TORONTO, April 1.—The Ontario millers are in session to-day here. They claim that the C. P. R. is discriminating in freights in favor of American flour.

Good Year for Farmers.

MONTREAL, April 1.—General Supt. Whyte, of the western division of the C. P. R., is in the city. He expects this will be an excellent year for Manitoba farmers.

Coming to British Columbia.

MONTREAL, April 1.—A large number of immigrants came by the Polynesian, and yesterday morning seven carloads passed through here, most of them bound for British Columbia.

ALASKA SALMON PACK.

Measures to Prevent Over-Production of Stock.

The Canning of White Salmon to be Prevented, and the Total Pack to be Limited.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1. — Louis Schloss, of the Alaska Commercial Co., who returned last night from the east, said: "A large number of people erroneously suppose that the loss of the sealers' lease means for us an absolute retirement from all our interests in Alaska. There could be no greater mistake. Our trading posts and many other interests are in no wise affected by the success of the Tevis-Liebes syndicate in receiving the lease. Furthermore, the firm of Hutchinson, Kohl, Philippians & Company still retains the Russian lease, and will hold it nearly twenty years more, and some of those who are interested in the Alaska company are members of that firm. Some of us are also heavy stockholders in the salmon canneries of Alaska, and altogether there is plenty to do for us as well as for others. A movement is on foot among the salmon canners and agents to come to some understanding whereby the production of the coming season will not be as large as it was last year. The most careful estimates show that there is still stock ranging from 200,000 to 250,000 cases of 1889 salmon in the hands of producers. Prices have not the firm tendency which agents would like to observe, nor is there any immediate prospect of the disposal of the carry over stock. Packers are now on the threshold of a new season, and naturally some of them are debating what shall be done to prevent a recurrence of the over-production. The best authority agrees that a pack ranging from 1,250,000 to 1,300,000 cases this year will be ample for all purposes, and a few of the canners are thinking of limiting things so that no more than this quantity may be put up. As far as possible the canning of white salmon will also be prevented; they are as good as red, but consumers cannot be said to be used to them, and those that have been sold have acted to the detriment of the market for red fish.

A Trip to Manitoba.

Last year I went to Manitoba on the C. P. R. At Rat Portage I got sick, and at Winnipeg I was so weak I had to be assisted off the train. I got a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and after the first dose felt better. When I got to Boissevain I was as well as ever. The Recent Shooting at Fort Douglas—The Old Hospital Building to be Burned.

From Our Own Correspondent.)

Mr. Morsby and Capt. Pittendrigh, the coroner, have left for Fort Douglas to investigate the killing of young Percival, the trader's son, by a halfbreed some weeks ago. A coroner's jury will be taken along from Harrison river.

The city council have decided to burn the old Royal Columbian Hospital, which was bought for the purpose of converting it into residences.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

LONDON, April 1.—In the House of Commons this evening Wm. Redmond asked the Government whether the Newfoundland delegates had been invited to London to discuss the fisheries question, and if not, whether the Government would cable an invitation.

Sir James Ferguson said the premier had invited them, and they doubtless would come as soon as their duties permitted. Therefore it was unnecessary to cable to them.

Dr. Tanner asked whether the consent of Newfoundland had been obtained to the arrangement between England and France before the beginning of the fishing season.

Sir James Ferguson said the modus vivendi had not been received in Newfoundland when the Government last heard from there officially. The last question he said might be left for the Newfoundland legislature to decide.

THE LOUISVILLE CYCLONE

Miraculous Incidents Connected with the Great Storm.

The Number of Deaths not so Great as First Reported—Losses in Other Places.

WEBSTER COUNTY'S LOSSES.

HENDERSON, Ky., April 1.—The total of killed in Webster county is forty, and the wounded eighty. A relief corps has gone out from Henderson. A coat found near Henderson contained papers which showed that it had been blown from Paducah, one hundred miles away.

LOUISVILLE'S LOSSES.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 1.—The total number of killed here by the tornado of Thursday night is ninety-three. It is feared that R. R. Barton, of Pittsburg, is dead in the ruins. So far about 150 badly wounded persons have been found. Several of those who were worst hurt are at the hospitals in a dying condition.

MIRACULOUS INCIDENTS.

LOUISVILLE, April 1.—There are hundreds of most interesting and miraculous incidents connected with the tornado, showing the queer freaks of the wind. A block of iron weighing over 150 pounds was blown [illegible] in the second story of the Chesapeake, Ohio & Southern Railroad, a [illegible] Union depot. Nobody knows where it came from, and the nearest building from which it could have come is nearly one hundred yards away. Great sheets of iron were dropped upon Dr. Barry's farm near Turner's station, forty miles from the city on the short line. In the ruins of a house on West Main street a clock was found clinging to a wall. It was a large office clock, but no one in the vicinity had ever seen it before, and no one knows where it came from. It was badly broken, but the hands still pointed to 8:20 p. m. A large slab of marble was found in a residence on West Madison street, which was never there before. It will weigh over a hundred pounds. At Baird's drug store, on Market, above Ninth, two bird cages with birds were blown in through a skylight. The cages were not injured and the birds were as full of song as ever. When the building occupied by Brand & Bethel, the tobacco men, on Green street, went to pieces, a portion of the frame work dropped through the roof of a little cottage just east of the factory. It consisted of heavy timbers to which were mortised four upright pieces of timber. When this came through the cottage the family were sitting around the table in the dining room, and the four uprights simply penned them in but did not hurt them in the least. It was one of the most wonderful escapes yet heard of.

Mississippi Floods.

VICKSBURG, Miss., April 1.—Reports of a new break at Austin, Miss., and of wavering levees elsewhere are inducing many families to move beyond the danger line. Greenville is surrounded and partly inundated. Mayersville has yielded to the floods. There is no loss of life reported from the recent breaks, but many head of live stock have perished and much property is ruined.

QUEEN VICTORIA'S RHEUMATISM.

Great Britain's Sovereign Undergoing Treatment at Aix-les-Baines.

LONDON, March 30.—Queen Victoria is undergoing treatment at Aix-les-Baines for rheumatism. She is taking baths regularly and spends an hour every day swathed in flannel bandages, with a towel tied around her head. Those who have seen her reclining on her bed after her bath, wrapped up to the chin and looking thoroughly uncomfortable, find it hard to realize that she is queen of Great Britain and empress of India. Her rooms are in the second story of the hotel annex and are eight hundred feet above sea level. The air and baths of Aix have always benefitted her, but she is suffering at present from the most obstinate case of rheumatism she has ever experienced.

All the Evidence In in the Rykert Case.

Middleton Admits Ordering the Confiscation of Furs.

Tariff Delegations Besiege the Government for Changes — Death of W. G. Perley, M. P.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

OTTAWA, Ont., April 1.—It is said that the delegates of the Canadian Dried Meat Company have reported to the London board that Three Rivers is totally unsuited for being made the headquarters of the enterprise.

The proceedings in the House were very dull to-day. The House will adjourn on Thursday night until Tuesday.

Perley, member for Ottawa, died early this morning, aged 70.

General Middleton this morning admitted that he gave orders to confiscate Bremner's furs, but denied having received any himself. Hayter Reid said that he obtained one bale of furs, but afterwards returned them to Battleford. It is said that the committee will simply report the facts to the House and the government will likely indemnify Bremner.

The Rykert case was closed before the privileges and elections committee this morning, except the arguments. To-day's evidence was very damaging against Rykert. Sir John Thompson will deliver the prosecuting speech against Rykert.

About twenty tariff delegations are here to-day wanting changes.

[William Goodhue Perley, the late member of parliament for Ottawa, was the son of John Perley, of Enfield, New Hampshire, in which state the deceased was born on June 4, 1820. He was prominently identified with the lumbering industry, and one of the promoters of the Canada Atlantic railroad. He was returned to parliament at the last general election on the Conservative ticket; besides being a staunch Conservative he was a strong Protectionist.]

CABLE NEWS.

Lottery Swindlers.

PESTH, April 1.—Some time ago there was discovered a conspiracy to defraud the lottery company at Temesvar, Hungary. Among the conspirators were two officers of the company. The conspirators after drawing prizes of one million florins were arrested. As a result of their trial the conspirators have been convicted. Forkus, holder of the successful ticket, and Szbovits and Putapocky, the two implicated officers of the company, being sentenced to 8 years' penal servitude. Frau Felkesy, mother of the girl who disguised as a boy drew the winning number, was sentenced to two years, and Col. Hergatts to three years' imprisonment.

The O'Shea Divorce Case.

LONDON, April 1.—Parnell has filed denials in the case of Capt. O'Shea vs. Parnell, as the co-respondent, and Mrs. O'Shea has asked a month's delay in filing her pleas. Capt. O'Shea will oppose granting further delay, believing, as he alleges, that the postponement is sought for political effect. It is now regarded as impossible to bring the case to trial before autumn at the earliest.

Bismarck's Birthday.

BERLIN, April 1.—The celebration of Prince Bismarck's 75th birthday at Friedrickshrue to-day was characterized by more enthusiasm and general festivity than have marked any similar occasion since the observance of Otto's natal days. Two special trains loaded with Prince Bismarck's admirers mingled their freight with that of the regular trains, which landed thousands of persons in the city during the day, and the castle was thronged with visitors until a late hour. In addition to these personal visits, the ex-chancellor received over 1800 birthday greetings by mail. The Emperor sent his portrait.

FISHERIES REGULATIONS.

The letter signed "Merchant" in yesterday's issue shows that the regulations recently issued by the Department of Marine and Fisheries are not considered by the canners on the Fraser either fair or judicious. Our correspondent has a thorough understanding of the subject on which he writes, and the opinions which he expresses may be regarded as those entertained by every intelligent man connected with the salmon packing industry on the Fraser river.

It is very singular that the department cannot make rules for the regulation of the salmon fishery which are acceptable to the canners. It would be thought that when the Government interfered in so important an industry as that of salmon-packing on the Fraser, it would do all it possibly could consistent with the preservation of the fish to meet the views of the men engaged in the business. These men understand just what is required to be done. The Department practically knows very little about salmon fishing in British Columbia, and it is very evident that it does not want to learn. The regulations which the canners complain of are not those which have been made to protect the fish. They are perfectly satisfied with the length of the time allowed for the salmon to go up the river free of all obstruction, but the department has so arranged that interval as to be of the greatest possible inconvenience and loss to the canners. Apparently the new regulations give the employes a day of rest on Sunday, but it is ingeniously contrived so as to force them to work on Sunday when they should rest, and to be idle on Monday when they would rather be at work. It is of such meddlesomeness as this that the canners complain, which is the result of ignorance and wrongheadedness on the part of the officials of the Department. The Government should have specified the number of hours in which fishing should be permitted, but it should have adopted the suggestions of the canners as to when the interval should begin. Provided the river is free for the required number of hours it is a matter of indifference to the government in what part of the week it is to be totally unobservant. I deny but it makes a great deal of difference to the canners when they shall stop work and when they shall begin again.

We are not surprised that our correspondent should be at a loss to account for the motive of the officials in making this rule simply vexatious. But it is of a piece with a very great deal that they do. They are conceited and self-sufficient, besides being densely ignorant, and they really believe that they can, in their offices at Ottawa, regulate the fisheries better than men who are on the spot and who have spent years in gaining the experience they possess.

We beg to direct the reader's attention again to the fact that the part of the regulations that excites the anger and the contempt of the canners has nothing to do with the protection of the fish, but is a mere business detail, which can only be judiciously regulated and properly understood by practical canners. The Fisheries Department has no excuse in mischievously meddling as it has done.

The canners of the Fraser River also complain of the discrimination that has been exercised in the matter of the licenses. They cannot see why they should be compelled to pay twenty dollars, and even fifty dollars, for a boat license, while others pay only five dollars. It is very difficult to imagine the reason of this discrimination. It certainly is not to protect the salmon, which is the fundamental principle of the regulations. The limitation of the number of boats is sufficient to effect that object. The high license is simply a tax on the business. But if a high license is necessary to regulate the canning business, why are not all treated alike? Why are some bled more freely than others? Is salmon packing on the Fraser like liquor selling, a business dangerous to the community in which it is carried on? The tax of twenty dollars does not come out of the fishermen who are employed by the canners. A large proportion of the fishermen are Indians, who, being lords of the soil, disdain to pay any license at all, whether five or fifty dollars. The canner who employs an Indian must make him a present of the license whatever its cost may be. He gets just as much for the fish he catches as white fishermen. The white fisherman pays five dollars license fee, but he will pay no more. He gets the same price for his fish as his neighbor, the Indian, who pays no license, and as the white boat-owner, who is one of the favored 150; why then should he pay twenty dollars for a privilege which another gets for five? He will not do it, so the fifteen or the forty-five, as the case may be, comes out of the canners' pocket.

We are not surprised that the canners feel that the discriminations are unjust and that they believe that if the Minister of Marine were acquainted with the salmon fisheries of this province the regulations would in many respects be very different from what they are. But what can be expected of a Department that knows next to nothing of the conditions under which the salmon fishery of British Columbia is carried on? The Minister of Marine has been urgently requested to visit British Columbia to see for himself what is required for the proper regulation of the salmon fishery. It was hoped and expected that he would have made it convenient to visit this province before new regulations were issued. British Columbia is well worthy a visit from the head of the Fisheries Department. There is no interest under the control of that Department of more importance than the salmon fishing interest of the Pacific coast. It is altogether too important an interest to be controlled by official underlings at Ottawa who think that they possess sufficient knowledge to run not only the Department of Marine and Fisheries, but all the other departments as well. The master's eye is needed here. Some one whose ideas do not run in the rut of officialism should make a study of the British Columbia salmon fishing industry with the view of framing for it a set of regulations which will extend sufficient protection to the salmon and at the same time treat the canners fairly, and not hamper them with restrictions that are purely vexatious. We trust that the Hon. Mr. Tupper's sense of duty will impel him to pay a visit to this province and give the salmon fishing industry here the attention that its importance demands.

BISMARCK'S RETIREMENT.

Prince Bismarck is represented as being angry at the way in which his resignation has been received by the people of Germany and the nations of Europe. We believe that he has been grossly misrepresented. Bismarck is too much a man of the world to expect either his fellow-countrymen or the world in general to exhibit signs of dismay at his retirement from the political arena. He is no doubt a very great man, and he knows it. As Chancellor of the Empire he was a power in Europe, a power that was hated and feared as well as admired and loved. No matter how or when he retired there are many who would rejoice and many who would be sincerely sorry. But it was not to be expected that either those who were glad or those who were sad would make any unusual exhibition of feeling. They were both under powerful restraints. Those who felt relieved to have Bismarck out of the way did not know what the regime of his successor would be. It is quite possible that William II., who appears determined to be his own Prime Minister, will be sterner and more oppressive than even Bismarck was. Those who viewed the retirement of the "man of blood and iron" with foreboding may have feared to offend the Emperor by making too great a show of their regret. Bismarck knows all this, and he knows besides that there is no man indispensable in this world. He is not so simple as to believe that he was the prop and mainstay of Germany, and that whenever he was removed the fabric which he had built with so much thought and at such a fearful expense, would immediately fall to pieces like a house of cards. It is not likely that Bismarck cherished any such delusion, and he must indeed have been greedy of homage if he was not satisfied with the respect and regard he received from men of all nations.

Time will tell whether Bismarck had lived his day and completed the work he had to do. It is not to be expected that the ship of state would go adrift as soon as his hand was taken from the helm. The impetus she received under his guidance will keep her on her course for a while. It is much too soon too look for the results of the new administration. The indications are that General Caprivi will never occupy the place in the German Government that Bismarck did. The present Emperor is a very different man from his grandfather. He evidently will not place himself in the hands of a minister and be guided by him in all important concerns. He has a will of his own, and he has also confidence in his own power to rule. Whether that confidence is well grounded or not no one yet seems to know. It is evident that his determination not to submit to ministerial control was the cause of the difference between him and the great Chancellor. This determination may be a good thing for his people and for Europe and it may be the reverse. Every thing depends upon the ability and the temper of the young Emperor. He is more independent of his ministers than any other European sovereign except the Czar of Russia, and whether he can make a good use of that independence remains to be seen. He has begun well. He, contrary to expectation, seems disposed to keep the peace. He goes even further and declares his intention to promote social reform. He has taken a step in that direction by convening an international labor convention. All the great powers are represented at that convention except Russia and America. It is not expected that the deliberations of the social reformers who are considering the great question of the day in Berlin will result in any practical good. But who knows? It is the unexpected that happens. It is evident that the Emperor of Germany has made up his mind to do what he can to give practical effect to the conclusions at which the Convention arrives. Would Bismarck give him any efficient aid in the work? It is not likely. His talent does not lie in that direction.

THE GREER CASE.

How Mr. Samuel Greer Puts It.

To THE EDITOR:—I wish to refute the statements of the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works, made before the House of Assembly, on Thursday last, and in so doing, after characterizing the whole as a tissue of unmitigated falsehoods, I will proceed to consider the clauses seriatim:

Clause 1.—"No proof that Preston occupied the land." Here I wish to publish the letter from Captain Pittendrigh to S. Preston, stating that Indians had laid complaints that he (Preston) was encroaching on their lands in 1874. I certainly stated that the land was open for pre-emption at the time of Spinks' claim, but I was in error, as I afterwards found that Preston still claimed it. Robert Preston abandoned his claim December 3rd, 1875. Sam Preston never did, but occupied it and paid taxes on it. Well, sir, if Sam Preston NEVER OCCUPIED the claim, as stated by the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works, how could he have abandoned it as stated by Mr. Hughes? Further, I have the certificate of the government agent, at New Westminster, dated 2nd December, 1886, that the original record is correct and has never been cancelled as stated by the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works. Sam. Preston had the permission of the mill company to pre-empt, dated October 13th, 1871, and in 1886 Sam. Preston was on the land and claimed his right to it as shown by his transfer of the same to Greer, dated 2nd December, 1886, in addition to occupation shown in 1884. The Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works has made a mistake by mixing up the two Prestons, as will be seen by (1885 Jour., P. 11,) the letter of F. G. Richards, jr., gives the date of abandonment by Robert Preston, but says that he has only "reason to believe that S. Preston had left the country." So you see S. Preston's claim never having been abandoned was never cancelled, he having complied with the provisions of the Land Act of 1873, which requires FOUR YEARS OCCUPATION ONLY.

Clause 2.—"S. Preston had no certificate of improvements." He was unable to obtain the same on account of his claim partly overlapping land claimed by the Indians, and he feared to jeopardise his liberty by applying for the same as the Dominion Government had already threatened to gaol him for interfering with the Indians. Greer subsequently purchased this particular portion of land from the Indians through the Indian Agent and removed the difficulty.

Clause 3.—"Greer owns a pre-emption on Chilliwhack." This I deny. I did have, and fully complied with the law, and as the Chief Commissioner well knows my application for a second pre-emption claim cancels all right to a first claim. I took up the pre-emption at Chilliwhack twenty years ago, paid the Government for the land in full, and for the survey of the same, and had certificates of improvements on it. The Government surveyed three sides of it, but the fourth side they have never surveyed, and consequently I declined to accept the Crown grant for the same. They informed me the expense would be too great.

4th. "GREEN IGNORED THE NOTICE OF RESERVE." Certainly he did. What right had the government to put a reserve on land which had already been disposed of in 1873—eleven years previously. The Crown had no jurisdiction over the land as long as the lease was on it. It was either Preston's or the Mill Company's.

5th. "CROWN GRANT ISSUED TO ANGUS AND SMITH." By declaration of the Chief Justice these so-called Crown Grants are straw titles only. I deny the right of any government to barter away the public lands, without proper payment therefor, and every legal authority in the province will admit that my contention is correct. Under the British North America Act all Provincial Governments are entrusted with selling public lands for money consideration only—unless by Act of Parliament. In this case there was no Act of Parliament, only a RESOLUTION OF THE LOCAL HOUSE. I am in possession and have been for over five years, having paid a fair price for all the rights I obtained, and having spent over $3,000 in improvements, and as a subject of the Crown I decline to recognize any straw titles, or in fact any claimant who cannot show a better title than I can.

In (Journal p. xxv.) Mackies' evidence he produces a letter from Hon. John Robson, dated December 26, 1883, in which that gentleman states that the land belonged either to the mill company or to the Dominion Government. How then could the local government place a reserve on it in 1884, if it did not belong to them? He further goes on to say that Hon. Mr. Robson through Mr. Corbould bought his claim, No. 1,216, now known as lot 472. This claim was pre-empted on the same day as Preston's, but not one-half of the improvements, not even $200 worth were put on it, that there were on Preston's, and yet by some peculiar influence this claim was allowed. But as the end in the matter has not yet been reached I will reserve further comments for a future occasion. Apologising for the space occupied, and thanking you for allowing me same, I am gratefully,

SAMUEL GREER.

THE CAUSE OF ALL DISEASES.

A Professor in a Medical College Makes a Discovery.

C. E. Laning, M.D., professor of clinical medicine, in a paper recently read before a medical association, made this assertion, "All diseases are due to lesions injury or weakness of the nervous system."

Dr. Laning gives this illustration to make clear the way in which nerve weakness causes disease. "The ball is hurled from the cannon by explosion of the powder, but this could not have occurred had it not been for the slight blow which forced the spark from the percussion cap. Thus with disease, it is the slight blow or friction which makes the nervous system throw out the spark which causes great physical explosion." That so called blood diseases are due to nervous weakness is owing to the fact that the making of new blood is directly controlled by the nervous system. Here is an explanation of the many marvelous cures made by Paine's Celery Compound, in cases of salt-rheum, scrofula and other blood diseases.

Mr. P. Segoll, of Sault Ste Marie, Ont., has been greatly benefited by this medicine. He writes, "It is the best remedy for weak people. It makes blood, and strengthens the body, mind and nerves."

Charles C. Bennett, of the Bates House, Rutland, Vermont, who is well known to thousands of traveling men, writes that Paine's Celery Compound cured his wife of salt rheum of twenty years standing that had resisted all other methods of treatment.

If you have suffered for years with some disease which you and physicians deem incurable, try this medicine. Many who have been given but a few weeks to live are now healthy and happy, solely through the use of Paine's Celery Compound. Like nothing else, it restores healthy action to the nervous system, and hence pure blood, sparkling eyes, and blooming cheeks follow its use.

The Chinese Have Gone.

Yesterday all the Chinese hod carriers and bricklayers' helpers employed on buildings being erected in the city were dismissed, and their places given to white men. The action of the contractors in thus dismissing the cheap labor employed by them, is due to the resolution of the Bricklayers' Union not to allow any of its members to work where the foreign and distasteful element was also employed. To meet the bricklayers, who gave the contractors due notice of their intention, the latter agreed to comply with their request, although the use of white labor means the loss of a very considerable margin of the profits to the builders.

Funeral of the Late Edward Allen.

W. Smith, James Orr, I. B. Nason, G. B. Martin, and S. Duck.

FROM OUR FAVORITE BARITONE.

Dear Sir,—The piano bought from you a year ago for the Young People's Association of the First Presbyterian Church, has given satisfaction in every way. The test has been a severe one, the instrument having been in the school-room subjected to all kinds of temperature with only a cloth cover. The organist, Miss Stephen, as well as the various instrumentalists who have used it are united in praising its action and tone. I can only add that I enjoy singing a song, when the accompaniment is played on a "Goodwin."

Yours faithfully, JOHN G. BROWN,
Choirmaster First Presbyterian Church, Victoria.

The above testimonials and several others may be seen at the factory, corner of Fort and Broad streets.

A Serious Accident.

On Monday evening as Mr. Rounds, the master mechanic of the new mill now under construction at Chemainus by the Victoria Lumber and Manufacturing Co., was making some repairs to an extension pulley, he suffered an injury of a very serious character. The pulley which Mr. Rounds was adjusting was lying on a bed which was set in an incline. The roller bed was unfurnished with caps, and Mr. Rounds directed the engineer to start up, at the same time making an attempt to ram the pulley with a small lever. As the pulley began to turn it suddenly sprung from the bed and jammed the unfortunate man between the earth and another extension pulley at his back, breaking the thigh bone slightly above the centre. Both ends of the broken bone were driven forcibly through the flesh and protruded through the skin. After removing Mr. Rounds to his house, the company immediately telegraphed for Dr. Walkem, of Nanaimo, that gentleman arriving in the short space of one hour and five minutes from Nanaimo on a hand car. Dr. Walkem after examining the fracture decided that it was one which required careful nursing and attention, and he had the patient brought to Victoria on the afternoon train and placed in St. Joseph's Hospital, where a consultation was held between Drs. Hanington, Walkem and Hasell. Mr. Rounds was at last accounts resting quietly and comfortably.

McKanlass and His Minstrels.

The McKanlass minstrels had a good house when the curtain rose last evening, but before the final fall the best part of the audience had departed. The only redeeming feature of the show was McKanlass himself, who as a banjoist and violinist, as well as a dancer, proved good.

Presence of Mind.

Last evening Mr. Wm. Christie, of the C. P. R. Telegraph office, by the prompt display of presence of mind, was the means of saving a child from being knocked down and possibly trampled to death by a heavy draught horse, which was running along Douglas street at a headlong speed. The animal had evidently broken loose, as a long halter hanging from its neck dragged on the ground and added to the animal's fright. The horse in its flight did not notice a little boy playing in the road, and would have dashed over him had not Mr. Christie seen the child's danger. To seize the little toddler and left aside was the work of a moment, and just as the child had been removed, the heavy horse thundered past, his hoofs grazing the little chap's head, who was too dazed to realize what had happened until all danger was over. Then tears came to his eyes, and he relieved his pent-up feelings by a genuine outburst of childish grief, which, like an April shower, soon gave place to a sunny smile, amply rewarding the gentleman who had saved him.

Only about one-half the distance, as to Cadboro Bay, location just as desirable, and price $275 per lot. Bourchier, Croft & Mallette.

A Visitor's Opinion.

Rev. Dr. Wild, the prominent Toronto divine who spent yesterday in the city, in conversation with a COLONIST reporter, said that his present extended trip was the direct result of an attack of la grippe, which sent him traveling in search of health. He left Toronto about a month ago, having mapped out no plan, and decided to go where fancy led him. Chicago was first visited, then New Orleans, and then he was whirled across the continent to San Francisco. After seeing the sights and studying the characteristics of the Californian, Coast and Puget Sound towns, he came to this city, which he was more pleased with than any previously visited. "Victoria," said the doctor, "stands out in marked contrast with her neighboring cities. In the great majority bustle seems to take the place of business; in your picturesque city it is just the reverse. The business is done, and on a larger scale, I imagine, than in the other places, but it is done without any fuss or blowing of trumpets." The reverend gentleman greatly enjoyed his one day in Victoria, and left, with a very pleasant opinion of the city and people, this morning. On returning to Toronto he will deliver a lecture on his big ramble, in which Victoria and her attractions will not be forgotten.

The best offer of Victoria property yet made, either for building purposes or speculation. Sale of Lots in new subdivision commences Monday, 31st, March, at the office of Bourchier, Croft & Mallette.

One Little Piggie.

I OWNED a litter of pigs. They throve well until a month old, when their throats swelled, and spite of all remedies they all died except one, which was nearly dead. Laughingly I said I would try Yellow Oil, and gave it a thorough application. He improved at once, and soon was all right.

THE PREMIER'S TRIBUTE

To the Memory of the Late Member for Lillooet.

At the usual hour yesterday afternoon the provincial legislature assembled with almost every member in his place. As soon as the Speaker had taken his chair, the Premier rose, and after moving that the adjournment when taken should extend until Tuesday next, he addressed the House in the following language. Said he: The present is one of those melancholy occasions when our minds are naturally directed away from politics and political strife. Now, for the present twelve months, for the third time, Death has entered our ranks and carried away one of our members. It is unnecessary for me to dwell upon the circumstances. The member who has been taken from our midst has occupied a seat in this House for the last eight sessions. He was known to every member, and although some times we have had warm debates and warm words, although he may have at times been carried away by his feelings in those debates, yet we all will miss him sincerely. Both sides of the House, opposition as well as government, will admit that in him who has gone there dwelt a good, honest, outspoken, fearless British heart. He was always faithful in the discharge of his duty to his constituents; in him Lillooet has lost an earnest and faithful representative. He was always at his post, and he did his best to further every interest of the district which he had the honor of representing. In him we miss one of our number who endeared himself to both sides of the House by his never-failing good humor; we all shall miss his thoroughly British face, and his hearty British voice. It is proper therefore that we should adjourn this House so that all its members may pay a last tribute of respect to his memory by attending his funeral. I am therefore called upon to perform the melancholy duty of moving that this House do now adjourn.

The resolution was declared carried, and the House quietly adjourned.

NON-COMMITTAL.

Vice-President Holcomb, of the U. P. R., Pays Victoria a Flying Visit.

The Sound steamer, Olympian, did not reach her wharf in this city until 8 o'clock last evening, having left Tacoma at the usual hour and called at Port Angeles for about ten minutes en route to Victoria. On board the Sound flyer was a party of high officials of the U. P. R., among them Mr. W. H. Holcomb, vice-president; J. S. Cameron, chief of construction; V. G. Bogue, chief engineer; C. J. Smith, general manager; A. L. Maxwell, general passenger agent, and Capt. Troop, the newly appointed superintendent of water lines. Several prominent ladies and gentlemen, relatives of the officials, accompanied them on the trip, spent last evening in the city and returned to the Sound this morning.

Vice-President Holcomb was seen at the Driard last night by a COLONIST reporter, who, however, could glean very little information from him. Mr. Holcomb was evidently determined not to commit himself or his company. The visit of himself and his associates, he declared, was simply one of inspection. The company were considering the extension of their lines in many directions on the coast, but nothing was definitely decided upon, nor was he in a position to speak of the intentions of the U. P. R. The building of the line to Port Angeles and the operation of a railway ferry to Victoria, making this city a practical terminus of the transcontinental system, was, he said, simply an old scheme revived. It might be carried into reality.

THE MARY ELLEN CASE.

Two Adjournments in One Day and Still no Decision.

The case of Capt. Dan McLean of the Mary Ellen, came up in the speedy trials court yesterday morning, before Mr. Justice Drake.

Mr. P. E. Irving, deputy attorney general, who prosecuted, asked for an adjournment until 2.30 o'clock as A. Williams, one of the principal witnesses, had left town, and it was not yet known whether or not he was in Canada.

Mr. Wilson, for the defendant, said he would be just as satisfied to let the witness's depositions, given in the police court, be read in this court.

His lordship said that the depositions could not be read until it was ascertained whether the prisoner was in Canada or not. He would grant the adjournment to see if the telegram sent by the sergeant of police to Vancouver would be answered by that time.

On his lordship taking his seat at 2.30 in the afternoon, Mr. Irving said that no answer had been received to the sergeant's telegram, and the case was adjourned until 12 o'clock to-day.
